

“But I want you to understand that the head of every man is Christ, the head of a wife is her husband, and the head of Christ is God.” 1 Corinthians 11:3

Before the husband is the head of his wife, he must first have Christ as his head. Men were born natural leaders. Yet ever since the days of Adam and Eve, we men have failed to do our job. We have somehow turned this command to a tool of oppression. So this year we will explore how to be men led by Christ, and what it means to be "head of the wife" and other things in life. I see this relationship to be as follow:

But as men, we face so many pressure and temptations from our society that challenges this structure. It tells us to put God in a container and only pull Him out during some times in the week. It gives us porn to corrupt our view of women and stains our spirit. It fill our minds with money and materials so we don't think of more important things. Making this all worse, because of the fruit of knowledge of good and evil, we like to keep all our deep shames at the bottom of our hearts, afraid to bring them to light.

We are not alone in this struggle. We have all felt the shame and burden of our sins. Let us be bold and conquer these shame by being vulnerable to each other, and most importantly to God. A vulnerability that is free of judgement and gossip. Through genuine prayer, transparent sharing, instructive teachings(not from me), and maybe even some gentle rebuke, I hope that we can all be better equipped to face these struggles. Then perhaps we can start to comprehend God's original intention for our responsibility as men.
